Universal Prayer

Dave Stringer

"Universal Prayer"
Jamelia and Tiziano Ferro
woh woh~ x3
na na na na
[Verse 1]
I'm just the same as you
I could be the same age too
Listen to the same music you do
Everyday
No matter what separates us
The same stars we see at night
No matter what's up against us
Still gonna have dreams burning bright
I believe we fear what we dont know
We can be our own enemy
But if we conquered that
If you take my hand
I see a girl you see a man
[Chorus]
Everybody has the same dream
A dream in their heart
Get a chance to make a life
Love somebody they want
Open your eyes, we're all the same
We've all been scared
So lets sing together now
Na na na na
In this universal prayer
woh woh x3
na na na na
[Verse 2]
I see smoking lights
That complicate a simple life
I'm here and you are there
Miles away
All you gotta do
Is believe
That anything you want
You can reach

There's no limit to what we could be so open your mind and set yourself free
I believe we fear what we dont know
We can be our own enemy
But if we conquered that
If you take my hand
I see a girl you see a man

[Chorus]
Everybody has the same dream
A dream in their heart
Get a chance to make a life
Love somebody they want
Open your eyes, we're all the same
We've all been scared
So lets sing together now
Na na na na
In this universal prayer
[Bridge]And if you say that I'm naive
That I dont understand the world at all
You might be right but it seems to me
That we've come to far to fall
'Cause I believe that tears
Are dried seeds that've sown
The harvest time will come
And all this pain will go
So try to understand
We're just grains of sand
Every woman every man
Woh, woh (x3)
Na na na na
[Chorus]
Everybody has the same dream
A dream in their heart
Get a chance to make a life
Love somebody they want
Open your eyes, we're all the same
We've all been scared
So lets sing together now
Na na na na
In this universal prayer
[Chorus]
Everybody has the same dream
A dream in their heart
Get a chance to make a life

Love somebody they want
Open your eyes, we're all the same
We've all been scared
So lets sing together now
Na na na na
In this universal prayer
Woh, woh (x3)
Na na na na...
