

Made up Mind

The Bros. Landreth

I starts out slow
With go ahead and go
Pretty soon the melody is like a rainstorm tin roof symphony
But it starts out slowIt goes on and on
For way too long
It always ends on a bad note
If you could dance at all you'd dance alone
It goes on and on
The quiet behind the slamming door
The break of all hearts that won't break no more
Get away wheels in a straight line
Serenade of a made up mindThere ain't no rhyme
Just wasted time
Moonlight spotlight shining down on
A made up mind and a love gone wrong
There ain't no rhymeThe quiet behind the slamming door
The break of all hearts that won't break no more
Get away wheels in a straight line
Serenade of a made up mind
The quiet behind the slamming door
The break of all hearts that won't break no more
Get away wheels in a straight line
Serenade of a made up mind
