Sunshiny Day

Satanic Surfers

Tell me why are you sad on a sunshiny day,
there must be somenthing that has gottn in your way.
Is there anything that i can do ?
you're bringing me down with you.
Oh please, don't be sad...on a sunshiny day.
There is enough of rain and crying in this world,
so please save your tears for a better moment girl,
if you want to be at home then go ahead and stay,
but please, please don't cry...on a sunshiny day.
Well, i go skatong around with my friends instead,
and you can stay here crying your eyes out in bed,
i want to enjoy this beautiful day,
there is no way i'm gonna stay,
'cause i ain't gonna waste,
no i ain't gonna waste...this sunshiny day.
