Dexter Freebish

I'm breaking down again, can't close my eyes
Don't wanna die again tonight
I'm ripped in two again, can't hold the fire
Am I holding on too tight, too tight I can't believe it, I'd throw it all away
I can't believe it, my life's not the same as yesterday
It's undiscovered the future's so unclear
Will I discover the life that I want I'm breaking down again, can't close my eyes
Don't wanna die again tonight
I'm ripped in two again, can't hold the fire
Am I holding on too tight, too tight I've got a feeling that I will rise again
I've got a feeling these nightmares I'm living will end
I'll wait a lifetime to catch that endless flight
I'll need a lifetime trying my best I'm breaking down again, can't close my eyes
Don't wanna die again tonight
I'm ripped in two again, can't hold the fire
Am I holding on, over and over I ask why
I'm waiting, I'm waiting for a sign I'm breaking down again, can't close my eyes
Don't wanna die again tonight
I'm ripped in two again, can't hold the fire
Am I holding on too tight, too tight, yeah Too tight, yeah
Well am I holding on too tight
Well am I holding on too tight, too tight
