Calm Snow

I See Stars

Don't you tell me all them lies
We both know
Don't you tell me how time flies
It's so slowAll the love in the world
We both show
But when it comes to something real
We both choke
So tell me how does it feel, to know
That your lies (your lies)
Won't save you now?To know, your lies
Your lies, your lies
Won't save you nowSorry, sorryWe're watching things unravel slowly
You're just trying to get away from yourself
It's obvious you're speaking in languages I can't read
You just hide and confide in someone else
Oh ohDon't you tell me all them lies
We both know
Don't you tell me how time flies
I'ts so slowAll the love in the world
We both show
But when it comes to something real
We both chokeSo tell me how does it feel, to know
That your lies (your lies)
Won't save you now?To know, that your lies
Your lies, your lies
Won't save you nowWe're watching things unravel slowly
You're just trying to get away from yourself
It's obvious you're speaking in languages I can't read
You just hide and confide in someone else
Oh ohYour lies, your lies, your lies
Your lies
