

Fade Away

Spread Eagle

Monday afternoon

Youâ€™re still lying in the dark â€“ Feeling so high

Well I guess that you found

Some better way â€“ To make the pain subside

(Oh yeah you did)

Well no oneâ€™s heard from you

So Iâ€™m tryinâ€™ to get a message through â€“ To you now

Well now it seems that youâ€™re in

Too deep to wake up â€“ From whatâ€™s dragginâ€™ you down

Well I ainâ€™t been no angel

So who am I to say

Why I should be your hero

Leadinâ€™ you astray

Wish I could go back to zero

And start again

Donâ€™t you know

That Iâ€™d give my soul

For just one minute more

I donâ€™t want to see it fade away from me now

Donâ€™t you know

That Iâ€™d give my soul

For just one minute more

Donâ€™t want to see it fade away

So your fall from grace

But you donâ€™t fall from my pride

(Oh no you donâ€™t)

I can still feel you dreaminâ€™

Dreams too young to die now

I know I gave a picture

Tainted with my love

The colors slowly faded
Now the picture turns to dust
Now all that's left are pieces of a broken trust

Don't you know
That I would give my soul
For just one minute more
Don't want to see it fade away from me now

Don't you know
That I would give my soul
For just one minute more
I don't want to see it fade " want to see it fade away (oh no)

Don't wanna fade away
No I ain't lyin'
I don't I don't want to see it fade away
You just got to listen
Gotta get a message to you somehow
I know that you can hear me there ain't no doubt
When you've gone away you know the time is runnin' out
Don't you go and fade away

Now I ain't been no angel
So who am I to say
Why I should be your hero
Leadin' you astray

Don't you know
That I'd give my soul
Don't want to see it fade away

Don't you know
That I'd give my soul
I don't want to see it fade " want to see it fade away

Don't you know
That I would give my soul
I don't want to see it fade " want to see it fade

Don't you know

That Iâ€™d give my soul
I donâ€™t want to see it fade away
