

Only You

Jill Scott

Ain't gon' be no eyes to make me turn away
Ain't gon' be no kiss to make me contemplate
Walkin' out that door and never comin' back no more
(Ain't gon', ain't gon', ain't gon', ain't gon', g-g-gon') Ain't gon' be no cologne to make me say goodbye
Ain't gon' be no world to make me change my life
Throw away all I know for somethin' physical (Ain't gon', ain't gon', ain't gon', ain't gon', g-g-gon') Only you, only you
Only you can make me leave the key and lock the door
And never come back no m-m-more
C-c-come, come Ain't gon' be no style to make me change my smile
(Ain't gon', ain't gon', ain't gon', ain't gon', g-g-gon')
Ain't gon' be no stroll to make me lose control
(Ain't gon', ain't gon', ain't gon', ain't gon', g-g-gon')
Of my sanity, oh no, it won't be me Only you can make me leave the key and lock the door
And never come back no m-m-more Only you can make me leave the key and lock the door
(Only you)
And never come back no m-m-more
(Only you, only you, only you) (Only you)
Only you can make me leave the key and lock the door
And never come back no m-m-more
(Only you) Only you can make me leave the key and lock the door
And never come back no m-m-more Only you, only you
Only you, only you
Only you, only you
