Cover Your Eyes

Stinkaholic

I'm sorry a phone call
Is the best I could do at this time
You're busy
But this on again, off again
It's starting to mess with my mind
So baby
Cover your eyes
It can't hurt forever
Soon I won't ever
Cross your mind
Cover your eyes
If you don't see me goin'
There's no way of knowin'
When it's time to cry
Cover your eyes
Darling, if you wake up tomorrow
And everything seems Different
If I only exist as a name
On your telephone screen

Well, hey, listen
Cover your eyes
It can't hurt forever
Soon I won't ever
Cross your mind
Cover your eyes
If you don't see me goin'
There's no way of knowin'
When it's time to cry
Cover your eyes
Cover your eyes
It can't hurt forever
Soon I won't ever
Cross your mind
Cover your eyes
If you don't see me goin'
There's no way of knowin'
When it's time to cry

Cover your eyes
