Porchlight

Craig Cardiff

One month down; two more months in
I can't wait to see you again
I'm going to hold you so tight
Until your heart's unbrokenSome of us got lost; some got found
Mortgaged, car'd, kids, on the edge of town Tell me what happened to the fireworks and promises spoken?All my friends are someplace else
I'm out here by myself
Leave the porchlight on and your heart wide openI went for a walk where I grew up slow Hoping to see a face I'd know
I walked for hours
And didn't meet a soulI'm tired of other people's bathrooms and other people's beds
Some of us stayed; most of us fled
From this life
It can leave you a little bent and brokenI threw myself out into the world
And the world she received me
And landed me safe in Safe into the nest of youAll my friends are someplace else
I'm out here by myself
Leave the porchlight on and your heart wide openX2
