

Shamateur

Hypocrisy

Now meet your maker
Alone, you won't go
Unbeknown in my dreams, or was it for real? There is no use now, to pretend
Your hundred names, I'll never forget
I felt a bad dream, you won't, you can't resist Your final relief, is your way
No need to end this pain
Where is world, there's new life Slowly, endless empire
Slow, no, now, not yet
Release of my sorrows Love, will conquer endless dark nights
And no one cares, when we met life
No one cares Now meet your maker
I'm not afraid
The day is at dawn Don't try to teach me things
To see how long you can live
How are we to fight it? Curse on the weak
Take all my thoughts
Will this ever end?
