

Put Your Gun Down

Oceana

Standin' here, face to face
Feel the fear in this place
Too much blood has been shed
We can't forgive, we can't forget
Why do we hurt each other?
Life could be so much better
Too hearts, one love
Many faces for one god Tonight
We don't fight
I surrender
Now put your gun down
Tonight
We don't fight
Love is stronger
So put your gun down Put your gun down
Put your gun down
Put your gun down
Put your gun down Silent tears raining down
Loneliness all around
Too hearts, one love
Many faces for one god Tonight
We don't fight
I surrender
Now put your gun down
Tonight
We don't fight
Love is stronger
So put your gun down Put your gun down
Put your gun down
Put your gun down
Put your gun down What, what, what,
What are we waiting for?
Love, love, love,
Love is the only cure What, what, what,
What are we waiting for?
Love, love, love,
Love is the only cure Tonight
We don't fight
I surrender

Now put your gun down
Tonight
We don't fight
Love is stronger
So put your gun down Put your gun down
Put your gun down
Put your gun down
Put your gun down
