Arrow

Buffalo Road

Girl
She don't have a name
She don't have a face
Never had much of anything
Yes I see you and I fall from grace, yeah
She don't have the line
She don't have the time
Never had much of anything
Yes I see you, I point too
You waste me, oh
You want me oh, my, my
Now, yeah
Still she don't have a name
She don't have a face
Never had much of anything
Yes I see you and I fall from grace
She don't have the line
She don't have the time
Never had much of anything
Yes I see you, you point too
You waste me
You want me oh my Babe, yeah
And I'm losing you again now
No, no, no, no
Feel you slip right down now
Something's on my mind
I can't find the time
Someone got arrow
Someone got arrow
Something's on my mind
I wanna tell you
But then I can't find the time
I wanna feel it
Someone got arrow
Someone got arrow
If there's one thing you feel
I should tell you before I go, I won't
If there's one thing you feel
I should tell you a little on

Arrow
Yeah, yeah
Oww!
Oh, yeah
Yeah, I'm now feel I'm losing you again now, now
No, no, no, no
Something's on my mind
Someone got arrow
Someone got arrow
I wanna tell you but that
Someone got arrow
Someone got arrow
Oh, no
