Bullets Included No Thought Required

Ignite

Put down your gun, punk
Put up your dukes, son
Why can't you be a man?
Fight me one on oneDon't need guns or knives to hide behind
Bullets included, no thought requiredSenseless violence
There's no excuse for this
You live the path of most resistance
Create your own hellYou live in violent times
No respect for other people's livesPut down your gun, punk
Put up your dukes, son
Why can't you be a man?
Fight me one on oneEmancipate yourself from stupidity
Don't look for handouts, just opportunityTag your name on dirty toilet stalls
Claim your turf on subway urinals
Pay your rent by selling guns and drugs
Understand, I don't respect you at allSenseless violence
There's no excuse for this
You live your path of most resistance
Create your own hellYou live in violent times
Put down your gun, punk
Put up your dukes, sonTag your name on dirty toilet stalls
Claim your turf on subway urinals
Pay your rent by selling guns and drugs
Understand I don't respect you at allPut down your gun, punk
Put up your dukes, son
Why can't you be a man?
Fight me one on oneDon't need guns or knives to hide behind
Bullets included, no thought required
