

Speak My Mind

Vinyl Theatre

I got my new mind
Set on a shelf
Afraid to use it now
I never keep my head straight
Cause it's loose
Never talk cause it's no use
My brain says "quiet down"
Quiet now
But i seem to take the hits straight to my chest
Mad of chainmail, yeah, at best
But it's no good in these modern days
Oh, maybe I'll escape
This prison in my headspaceIf I just speak my mind
Speak my mind
If I just speak my mind
Speak my mindBut I always get so tongue-tied on the truth
Too afraid of getting bruised
These thoughts get louder now
Make a sound
Tends to bring my heart rate through the roof
Hesitating on my ruse
Don't you quiet down
Make a soundOh, maybe I'll escape
This prison in my headspace
If I just speak my mind
Speak my mind
If I just speak my mind
Speak my mind
If I just speak my mind...I see it in my head
This vision of heaven
I'm biting my tongue once again
Oh, tossing and turning
But nobody's listening
I don't want to sleep like thisOh, maybe I'll escape
This prison in my headspace
Oh, maybe I'll escape
This prison in my headspaceIf I just speak my mind
Speak my mind
If I just speak my mind

Speak my mindIf I just speak my mind

If I just speak my mind

If I just speak my mind

Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnyrics.com/>