

The Sun Ain't Shining No More

The Asteroids Galaxy Tour

Well
I got my mind out of sight
Lost the common sense
Got a rave in my brain
Like I'm without defense
Till I catch my eyes right in front of me
It's a bloke of a man finally second base
Hey shoot from the lip oh yeah
What a smothie he had to shake out a line
He really had it going
The crowd's getting thinner
We are getting closer
With a hole in my head
He took me to his sofa...
Well now the Sun ain't shining no more
I don't know why but I've seen it before
Ain't got no joy no man to lean on
He leaves my soul on the floor like a doll
Yeah-yeah-yeah

Well
He was gentle he was hot
He made me feel alive
So in love I was falling
Ooh it's early morning
He took me in his hands and squeezed me real tight
I was humbled so starstruck but depending on this guy
He didn't last very long a week or maybe two
When he called me on the phone
Saying baby I don't love you
Just another lonely [??one way??] love
Always giving never get

And now I feel so stupid
It's like a deja vu ooohhh...
Because the Sun ain't shining no more
I don't know why but I've seen it before
Ain't got no joy no man to lean on
He leaves my soul on the floor like a doll
Oh no the Sun ain't shining no more

I don't know why but I've seen it before
Ain't got no joy no man to lean on
He leaves my soul on the floor like a doll

Yeah-yeah

For a while I'm shining
But later I'm crying
Instead of getting stronger
I'm always getting weaker
For a while I'm shining
But later I'm crying
Instead of getting stronger
I'm always getting weaker...

Heh

Heh

Yeah-yeah-yeah-yeah

No

Yeah now the Sun ain't shining no more
I don't know why but I've seen it before
Ain't got no joy no man to lean on
He leaves my soul on the floor like a doll...

Whoo-ooh-ooh-ooh-ooh

Whoo-ooh-ooh-ooh-ooh

Whooooooooo...
