

Fallen Angel

Bruce Guthro

[esham]I was an unplanned pregnant, brought forth by a mistake

 Go on into a world, filled up wit lust a hate

 Little do I know about life, but I'm still learnin

 First i'mma journey through hell, without burnin

 Livin in the ghetto, the devil is now a black man

 I saw him standin in the corner wit the crack man

 Little do I know, this hell is now my home

 Since birth the peace I blown, is now gone

 Like the death, days passed, I'm still growin

 Death is my fate, and this hell but never knowin

 When, but how do I survive without sin

 But thou shall not kill was my first

Then I broke off ten commandments, I guess I'm doomed to go to hell

 But I'm already there, so tell another tale

 From the dark side of myself, I'm entangled

 Between heaven and hell, the fallen angel

"aaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaahhhhhhhhhhhhh!!!!!!!"

[esham]18 years passed, never knew about love

 The sky is fallin, so I fell from the heavens above

 Product of ya sins, my father, I never knew him

 Call the exorcist, 'cause the devil done got to him

 Voodoo child, son of bitch, a bastard

 Sold my soul, and now I'm the master

 My mother sings the blues, and drinks the booze

And then she praise to save my soul from bad news

 Tears fall, I hear my mother call on the lord

 Tonight I be playin in my room, on the ouija boards

 Screamim red rum at the top of my lungs

 When I close my eyes, visions of bodies bein hung

 Death was my destiny, life was a test to me

 Livin inside, my owns sins'll blast for me

 Death awaits inside myself, I'm entangled

 Between heaven and hell, the fallen angel

[r&b sample][esham]As my soul gets deep into darkness can I be saved

 My life flash before my eyes in many ways

 I saw me in my earlier days, in wicked ways

 Cross my heart, and hope to die, is on my grave

 Written on my tombstone, rest in peace

Ridin body in the ground, as the maggots feast
You see I live so fast, but died so young
Another victim of another one, drinkin his red rum
I'm fallin from the heavens and I'm on my way
To meet my maker, the undertaker, 'cause now is judgment day
My soul is hot, and my body is all rotten
Another angel falls from the heaven, forgotten
Without a clue, nobody knew, the knowledge to teach me
'cause a, fuck the teacher and fuck the preacher
As my soul empiric's inside myself, I'm entangled
And outcast from the heavens, so I'm a fallen angel
