

Space Dust #2

Gruff Rhys

When I saw you in the seminar
Raindrops and fireworks flow,
Active Volcano's aglow,
I never heeded the warning.
We fell in love by the morning light,
In the middle of the afternoon,
Head over heels for you love
In the middle of a crowded room,
Lightning descends from above,
In the quiet of the afternoon,
Space dust engulfs us
in space dust.
Tell me you're the only one for me.
It's just a walk in the park,
Told me you'd always be there for me,
Things sometimes change after dark.
You upped and left without warning,
I had to work in the morning.
Couldn't even look me in the eyes,
You had your sunglasses on.
Didn't even care to say goodbye,
You didn't even answer the phone,
You never called me at all,
Space dust just breaks up and dies.
