Safe From You

Frente!

Read her name to me
Just one young girl
And her tragedy following her
Fists and threatsHe forgets they were the world
And he is misery
And when she sings her beauty stings
His eyes are like a curse and hers
Are permanently blueWe can keep her safe from you
We can keep her safe from youJust one drink makes you think
How great your friends can be
Wakes up a world where he can't be
Here he comesSomething dumb with loaded fingers and thumbs
She clings to my arms
And I can't give her the strength
To live in the second before the people become
A corridor for twoWe can keep her safe from you
We can keep her safe from you
It's trueAnd in a black back street
With the back of your hand
Now we're over understanding
How a guy like you gets born
There's only one of youWe can keep her safe from you
We can keep her safe from youWe can keep her safe from you
We can keep her safe from you
We can keep her safe from youWe can keep her safe
We can keep her safe
We can keep her safeWe can keep her safe from you
We can keep her safe from youWe can keep her safe
We can keep her safe
We can keep her safe
We can keep her safe from you
