Forever Got Shorter

Braid

let's go undercover like young lovers should cause I can kiss you better then this letter could and you sayat least under these covers
I listen to you
And all this music about you I hope it finds you smiling againtill never begins or till forever ends I'll still be lost in poetics or lost in the mail can nobody tell you these guys have a passion for fashion but are sincere like a statue and if you have to choose I am gonna lose
I always do we always do nostalgia is drunk and frustration can be gorgeous but can i keep my mouth shut(I listen to you
And all this music about you I hope it finds you smiling again till never begins or till forever ends)cause sometimes gorgeous can be frustration when your life is nothing but an honorable mention on a radio, on the radio. maybe i'm a baby but i think it's time to grow. you're everything i live for -ever got shorter.
i'll know on a radio better I'm a quitter than a starry tortured soulthe lips I kissed now shape songs of sadness hold me dear when I'm away and I'll know when I hear your name even if I have to sing it to myself.
