

Orbit (ft. Richard Caddock)

WRLD

Could be the sunset or just the look in your eyes
That shine so bright
Reach out over the ocean waves
And try to come to life Don't let go over the bright blue sky because the future's looking far to light
I am ready for a long lost ship to set sail
And carry me through the starry night Dream of me whenever you are feeling oh so lonely
Try to leave your fears behind
We are locked in an orbit racing round the docks
Of moonlit worlds that may collide
Keep your eyes on mine Touch down on the surface of my heart
The feeling's never gone
A brave adventurer like me
Remembers everywhere that I've come from Keep your feet to the vacuum sky
Cause it's surrounded us out here
Follow the trail of the star dust
Of the ones that came before us
And we'll see what we've always been near Dream of me whenever you are feeling oh so lonely
Try to leave your fears behind
We are locked in an orbit racing round the docks
Of moonlit worlds that may collide
Keep your eyes on mine
