

Drift Off To Dream

Travis Tritt

As I sit here surrounded by people and lights
Alone with my drink at the bar
You've been here forever, so clear in my mind
I just don't know where you are
But I know I'll find you but girl 'til I do
This is my love song for you
Let's hold hands on the porch swing, under the moon
While the wind through the willows plays us a tune
We can lie on a blanket, out back in the yard
And wish for our future on a faraway star
And you'll feel the passion as time after time
And I press your sweet lips to mine
We can dance to the radio, right up 'til dawn
'Til you drift off to dream in my arm
You might be hundreds or more miles away
Or you might be just down the street
But there'll be a hunger deep in your eyes
That I'll recognize when we meet
It might take hours or it might take years
But this is the song you will hear
Let's hold hands on the porch swing, under the moon
While the wind through the willows plays us a tune
We can lie on a blanket, out back in the yard
And wish for our future on a faraway star
And you'll feel the passion as time after time
I press your sweet lips to mine
We can dance to the radio, right up 'til dawn
'Til you drift off to dream in my arm
And you'll feel the passion as time after time
I press your sweet lips to mine
We can dance to the radio right up 'til dawn
'Til you drift off to dream in my arm
