Yosef Karduner (×™×•×;×£ ×§×¨×“×•× ×¨)

Know, itâ€™s necessary to judge every person meritoriously.
Know, itâ€™s necessary to judge every person meritoriously.

And even someone who is totally evil,
One must search and find in him some little good
That part that isnâ€™t evil.
And through finding a little good
And judging him favorably
He will elevate that person to be truly meritorious
And enable him to sincerely return.
