

Horseheadedfleshwizard

Devendra Banhart

Horse down the dead, before they die, before they die
Horse down the dead, before they die, before they die
Who do you hear, a dying fire, a dying fire
Oh, can you feel, a golden soul, one golden soul
Now, I put the ovaries in my mouth
And all the dogs will die and
The devil will call the cats home
And he looks up to the sky
I put the ovaries in my mouth
And all the dogs will die and
The devil will call the cats home
And he looks up to the sky
Horse down the dead, before they die, before they die
Horse down the dead, before they die, before they die
