

Why Don't I Miss You

Bowling for Soup

Remember back at Ryder High
Wishing on stars in the Texas sky
I got your name tattooed
Across my heart, how could we lose? Back in black when we were hand in hand
Two young kids like Jack and Diane
Falling at the speed of light
And burning up never felt so right So why I don't miss you?
Tell me what am I supposed to do
After all the shit that we've been through
I can't feel a thing Maybe I was too high
Maybe I just sobered up too soon
And you're still on the dark side of the moon
And always on my mind
So why don't I miss you? So many nights we drove around
King and queen of the whole damn town
Voted 'Most likely to succeed'
We were everybody? s meant to be Burned out plans to take over the world
Did I fuck it up or did we just get bored
Of losing at the same old game?
We had our 15 minutes of fame We took it all the way
You can't say we didn't try So why I don't miss you?
Tell me what am I supposed to do
After all the shit that we've been through
I can't feel a thing Maybe I was too high
Maybe I just sobered up too soon
And you're still on the dark side of the moon
And always on my mind
So why don't I miss you? Why don't I miss the way
You laugh at everything I say?
You mom? s apple pie
Always blew me away It? s funny how I always write
The same old song
I wonder if you ever sing along with me
Sing along with me So why I don't miss you?
Tell me what am I supposed to do
After all the shit that we've been through
I can't feel a thing Maybe I was too high
Maybe I sobered up too soon
And you're still on the dark side of the moon

And you're always on my mind
So why don't I miss you?(Burned out plans to take over the world)
(I got your name tattooed)
Why don't I miss you?
(Did I fuck it up or did we just get bored?
(Across my heart, how could we lose?Why don't I miss you?
(So many nights we drove around)
(But we were losing at the same old game)
Why don't I miss you?
(King and queen of the whole damn town)
(We had our 15 minutes of fame)
Why don't I miss you?
