Nostradamus

Al Stewart

In the east the wind is blowing

The boats across the sea

And their sails will fill the morning

And their cries ring out to meOh, oh, oh, the more it changes

The more it stays the same

And the hand just re-arranges

The players in the gameOh, I had a dream

It seemed I stood alone

And the veil of all the years

Goes sinking from my eyes like a stoneA king shall fall and put to death

By the English parliament shall be

Fire and plague to London come

In the year of six and twenties three An emperor of France shall rise

Who will be born near Italy

His rule shall cost his empire

Dear Napoloron his name shall be From Castile does Franco come

And the Government driven out shall be

An English king seeks divorce

And from his throne cast down is heOne named Hister shall become

A captain of Greater Germany

No law does this man observe

And bloody his rise and fall shall be Man, man, your time is sand

Your ways are leaves upon the sea

I am the eyes of Nostradamus

All your ways are known to meMan, man, your time is sand

Your ways are leaves upon the sea

I am the eyes of Nostradamus

All your ways are known to meIn the new lands of America

Three brothers now shall come to power

Two alone are born to rule

But all must die before their hourTwo great men yet brothers not

Make the north united stand

Its power be seen to grow

And fear possess the eastern landsThree leagues from the gates of Rome

A Pope named Pol is doomed to die

A great wall that divides a city at this time is cast aside

These are the signs I bring to you

To show you when the time is nighMan, man, your time is sand

Your ways are leaves upon the sea

I am the eyes of Nostradamus All your ways are known to me
