

Bones

Ginny Blackmore

I wish that you could see who I really am
It sucks being a woman in love
With an unkind man
Cause baby I would give you the world,
In fact I already do
And how do you repay that?
Talk to me like Im just a regular tramp
Trying to screw you over
Do you even have a clue what I gave up just to be here?
To serve your ass with steak and beerBaby thats love
Baby thats real
And all Ive ever wanted was for your damn arms
To wrap themselves around me and sayHey girl, youre the prettiest thing my eyes have ever seen
Come and lay your bones down with me
Come and lay your bones down with me
Hey girl, youre the prettiest thing my heart has ever known
Come and lay your bones down with me
Come and lay your bones down with meIm not trying to play the victim
Dont wanna go head to head
But boy, I shouldnt have to stand in the mirror
Convincing myself Im thin
Baby thats your job to do
Baby you should think Im beautiful
Why you wanna watch the set
When Im laying right next to you in our own room?
I feel like you dont even know Im there
But I put a brush through my hair for you
Run my fingertips over your back real smooth'Cause boy I need love
I dont get enough
And all I ever wanted is for your damn arms
To put themselves around me and sayHey girl, youre the prettiest thing my eyes have ever seen
Come and lay your bones down with me
Come and lay your bones down with me
Hey girl, youre the prettiest thing my heart has ever known
Come and lay your bones down with me
Come and lay your bones down with meI look you dead in the eye and say I love you
In the eye and say I want you
In the eye and say this is what Im asking for How could you sit and stare at the wall?

Do you even like me at all?
Stop talking bout making it better
It aint that complicated, I just wanna feel your arms around me, baby
Please say, girl, youre the prettiest thing my eyes have ever seen
Come and lay your bones down with me
Come and lay your bones down with me
Hey girl, youre the prettiest thing my heart has ever known
Come and lay your bones down with me
Come and lay your bones down with me
Please, please, baby, its a womans dream
