All Alright

Saigon Kick

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

That's what I want is a blood in your eye
That's all I need is a reason to die
Put it in your veins and it'll ease the pain
So talk your shit to someone else 'cause I ain't got the timeDon't ask me things you don't wanna hear
Don't ask me things you don't wanna hearWill turn your heart into stone in the blink of an eye?
You're all I want, you can take me higher
Lady of my soul, you can't change my mind
Suicide Jones ain't got shit on meDon't ask me things you don't wanna hear
Don't ask me things you don't wanna hearWe're all alright, whether it's wrong or right
Baby, it's all alright from here
We're all alright, whether it's wrong or right
Baby, it's all alright from hereThat's what I want is a blood in your eye
That's all I need is a reason to die
Put it in your veins, it will ease the pain
So talk your shit to someone else 'cause I ain't got the timeDon't ask me things you don't wanna hear
Don't ask me things you don't wanna hearWe're all alright, whether it's wrong or right
Baby, it's all alright from here
We're all alright, whether it's wrong or right
Baby, it's all alright from hereWe're all alright, whether it's wrong or right
(It's all alright from here)
Baby, it's all alright from here
We're all alright, whether it's wrong or right
(It's all alright from here)
Baby, it's all alright from here
We're all alright, whether it's wrong or right
