

The Beginning of the End

The Twilight Singers

You better shut your eyes
This is where you life could begin
Something gone, anesthetized again
I see you run, you're never coming back
You lost control so is it today's track? I come alive for a [Incomprehensible]
The summer sun is bland and it better rain
Some seek a lie, some creep at night
Children hide I do what I want to, I calculate
Forgot to revoke you, my mistake
I look in the mirror, time to pray
Nobody knows me, I'm away I'm so sad, so keep it coming
You're falling down, I get your money
Walk in the room and I see your [Incomprehensible]
You lost your way, come find your way I come alive in your presence and
The summer sun is down on the river bed
Some seek a lie, some sleep at night
Some take their time I do what I want to, I calculate
Forgot to [Incomprehensible] my mistake
