

Lights In The Sky

Nine Inch Nails

She's mostly gone, some other place.

I'm getting by, in other ways.

Everything they whispered in our ear,

Is coming true.

Try to justify the things I used to do,

Believe in you.

Watching you drown,

I'll follow you down,

I am here right beside you.

The lights in the sky

Have finally arrived

I am staying right beside you.

I tried to stay away,

Just in case.

I've come to realise we all have our place

Time, time has a way, you know, to make it clear.

And I have my role in this, I can't disappear,

Or leave you here.

Watching you drown,

I'll follow you down,

And I am here right beside you.

The lights in the sky are waving goodbye,

And I am staying right beside you.
