The Dancer Disappears

Dean Wareham

I was the arrow
I was the bow
I loved it, yeah
But I'm ready to go
Now that we're here
I'm ready to leave
The whole wide world behindBring back the magic
And light the match
There is a train that I'm hoping to catch
Now that we're here
I'm ready to leave
This whole wide world behindNow in the twilight
Of the psychedelic years
Roll back the highlights
Till the dancer disappears
Till the dancer disappearsBring back the magic
And light the match
There is a spark that I'm hoping will catch
Now that we're here
I'm ready to leave
This whole wide world behindNow in the twilight
Of the psychedelic years
Roll back the highlights
Till the dancer disappears
Till the dancer disappears
