Finally

Sherieta

You were my drug
You're ly disease yeah
Can't pull the plug
I couldn't leave you
You took advantage of my every little
Weakness
That's when you turn to sweetness
Insecure it is the jail of the mind
So desperate for love I trusted blindly
And I believed that you would be my remedy
Till my eyes were swollen shut
That's when I saw reality

Now I turn on the radio and kick off
My shoes
I turn on the tv but I mute the news
Do what I want say what I feel to say
Because the curse is broken finally
I don't hurt like i did before
I don't hide from slamming the doors
I'm not a weak as I was yesterday
Because the curse is broken finally
Never knew freedom felt so good
So listen to my story

My mommy didn't love me enough
My daddy's love was tough
I always felt alone
Oh yes my life was rough
No, I didn't love myself
It felt good, to hear the words from Someone else
A young girl with no place to cry
So you took me in
Said you would change my life
I was a mental slave
To your emotional reign
If I had let you, I know you
Woulda hit me again

But me, take up the knife and you backed away
I grabbed my bags and I was free
Like a bat outta hell I ran screaming
Tears of joy in my eyes
Cause I'm leavin'

Now I turn on the radio and kick off
My shoes
I turn on the tv but I mute the news
Do what I want say what I feel to say
Because the curse is broken finally
I don't hurt like I did before
I don't hide from slamming the doors
I'm not a weak as I was yesterday
Because the curse is broken finally

There are things about you that I miss look at your picture and I reminisce
But selective memory is a dangerous thing
So yesterday me make sure me
sell the wedding ring
Cause I won't go back to that kinda life
But Lord knows I thank you
Cause who would I be if I hadn't met you
But I know who I'll be now that I've left you
Oh freedom feels soo

Now I turn on the radio and kick off
My shoes
I turn on the tv but I mute the news
Do what I want say what I feel to say
Because the curse is broken finally
I don't hurt like i did before
I don't hide from slamming the doors
I'm not a weak as I was yesterday
Because the curse is broken finally
