Audio Karate

how very nice of me do what you want to me just know i'm never gonna change in spite of everything visions a wandering with my luck you're never gonna seestand back you're never gonna see with lack luster visiongo back along the way i know i know i can't changegood looking rattle me tell me along the way there's so much im never gonna see.
over the novelty of love and life alarming me
