

Niap

Millencolin

When I saw you, I was not even looking
I heard you scream without raising your voice
Will I run or let you have your fun
I feel like I ain't got no choice. But maybe I ask too much or walk in the wrong direction
All these thoughts drive me insane
And I wonder how long I felt this. Pain, is not really what it is No, it's something different with a different name
And you, you never tell me damn thing
I hope someday I'll learn to play this game. But maybe I ask too much or walk in the wrong direction
All these thoughts drive me insane
And I wonder how long I felt this. Fear, of course I fear the unknown
Because the unknown is a stranger to me
But if you erase the past
Then what could a stranger be
What could a stranger be
That remains to be seen. Life goes on, it's just the same old every day.
Life goes on, though you think you feel this pain. When I saw you, I was not even looking
I heard you scream without raising your voice
Will I run or let you have your fun
I feel like I ain't got no choice. But maybe I ask too much or walk in the wrong direction
All these thoughts drive me insane
And I wonder how long I felt this.
Wonder how long I felt this.
Wonder how long I felt this pain
