Legions (Remastered 2016)

Stratovarius

Far in the core of the earth
First it was given birth
We heard the call the message was so clear
The tracks were laid for the future to comeSons and daughters of the Rising Sun
The armies in Europe here we come
We run like the wind we play from the heart
Now we are here together we singFaster than light, higher than the sky
Tonight we're together again
We never give up and never give in
Stronger than steel we're the Legions of the TwilightWe survived the hard times
Never accepted the lies
You run like the wind you sing from the heart
Now that we're here together we'll singFaster than light, higher than the sky
Tonight we're together again
We never give up and never give in
Stronger than steel we're the Legions of the TwilightWhen we have to go back home again
We'll keep the memories we gained inside our hearts
Faster than light, higher than the sky
Tonight we're together againWe never give up and never give in Stronger than steel we're the Legions of the Twilight
Raise your hands for us!
