

Bedless

Pierce the Veil

[Verse 1]

Surf to me whenever you want
And whenever you're breezing through
You're tearing my world apart As we lost the light
Wet chas on the bar
She fell victim to a violent wave
And died on the jagged rocks [Pre-Chorus 1]
But don't believe in neverending summer
'Cuz they don't exist
Tied around your tongue in all the rage and spit
So why am I the one falling apart? [Chorus]
Cause you don't even know you're an angel
Foolish in mind
But it's time I come and go
These stars defy love
So I close my eyes
And sleep inside your worn in bed outline
Splash over your body while you drown on me
Ain't seen nothin' yet until the galaxy
I was sober
Demise to the young and without time
In the morning, hear all the birds sing
It never stops them
With tears in your eyes
Your smile, dressed in covers'
Own dim light (Oh oh I hope you don't regret me) [Pre-Chorus 1]
But don't believe in neverending summer
'Cuz they don't exist
Tied around your tongue in all the rage and spit
So why am I the one falling apart? [Chorus]
Cause you don't even know you're an angel
Foolish in mind
But it's time I come and go
These stars defy love
So I close my eyes
And sleep inside your worn in bed outline [Bridge]
It won't be long 'till we drop this match
When it burns at your fingertips, you can throw what's left
So long
Let's go and play those games you like
Let's go and play those games you like [Pre-Chorus 2]
But don't believe

'Cuz yesterday I found her with her clothes still wet
Crying in the shower on her knees
She screamed, "Why the fuck am I falling apart?"[Chorus]
Cause you don't even know you're an angel
Foolish in mind
But it's time I come and go
These stars defy love
So I close my eyes
And sleep inside your worn in bed outline[Outro]
And it woke me up like a heart attack
When you talk in your sleep, I'll be there, slow your breath
