The Dodos

Is this still what you want
The moment to carry
Is this still what you are
A memory of yourself
And though you looking out
Could never be looking in
Is this still where you are
No passage to find itWill this happen again
The cycle behind it
Is this all that there is
The memory of itself
And though leaving you out
Could never be what was meant
In this, all that you want
The moment to carryIs this all that you want
The moment to carryCould it still be the way you wish?
Could it still be the way you wish?
And oh is that the way, the way that you want it still?
