Bloodfrozen

Dark Funeral

Twilight - moonrise
Awakened by the moonlight of the transylvanian night
I hear those mournful cries
Whisper from the shadows
Mesmerized by the moon
I rise from my coffin
The moonlight rays awaken my soul
From my cold sleep so dark and coldAs nightfall closes in I know the time has come
When I spread my darkened wings and become one with the night
Obsessed by eternal bloodlust
Into the embrace of the skies I fly
To satisfy my desires and kill once again
Bloodfrozen
Under the rise of the shining moon
Bloodfrozen
Through the night I'll come for youMidnight
A nocturnal vision so cold
The shivering light of the moon
Mezmerize my soul
Again I shall kill
And end the lives of mortals
I satisfy my desires
With purest human bloodI am immortal...
I am eternal...Dawn
As the rays of the moon fade away
I return to the chambers of my castle
Far beyond the realms the light
Once enshrined I am
Into an endless crypt of darkness
I remain bloodfrozen
Until twilight calls my nameBloodfrozen
Under the rise of the shining moon
Bloodfrozen
Through the night I'll come for you
To take your soul to hell
