Heart Of Chrome

Kiss

You better listen up
Since you screwed me you've been on my mind
Yeah, till the day we met, I was cruisin', I was doin' fine
Ooh, but now my world's gone crazy
And I think about you all the time
I'm gonna tell it to you baby, it ain't like it was
There'll be no if's, and's or maybe's, only justice becauseHey, baby
(I got an angry soul, I got a broken home)
I'm gonna stick it in your heart of chrome
(I got no self-control, you got a heart of chrome)
Yeah, sugar
(And now you're gonna see, that since you messed with me)
I'm gonna stick it in your heart of chrome
(You'll pay eternally)
(For your heart of chrome)Yeah, you really made a fool outta me
Everybody knew you used me, but I was just too blind to see
You taped our sexy conversations and you sold 'em to the BBC
You told me people can't be trusted
Yeah, watch the things they do boy
But if you still believe in justice, I'm gonna give it to ya
Give it to ya
OohHey, baby
(I got an angry soul, I got a broken home)
I'm gonna stick it in your heart of chrome
(I got no self-control, you got a heart of chrome)
Yeah, sugar
(And now you're gonna see, that since you messed with me)
I'm gonna stick it in your heart of chrome
(You'll pay eternally)
(For your heart of chrome)You told me lies about all that you feel
I realize now that nothing was real
You took everything you could beg, borrow, steal(Ooh)
Hey, baby
(I got an angry soul, I got a broken home)
I'm gonna stick it in your heart of chrome
(I got no self-control, you got a heart of chrome)
Yeah, sugar
(And now you're gonna see, that since you messed with me)
I'm gonna stick it in your heart of chrome

(You'll pay eternally)
(For your heart of chrome)Hey, baby
(I got an angry soul, I got a broken home)
I'm gonna stick it in your heart of chrome
(I got no self-control, you got a heart of chrome)
Yeah, sugar
(And now you're gonna see)
I'm gonna stick it in your heart of chrome
(You'll pay eternally, for your heart of chrome)
