Jessica

Down With Webster

We're never alone 'cause i'm thinkin' of her when it's you and me.
There's a picture of me next to hard who believe in the dictionary....
Said we were in love but that ain't what I want now, what I want now, what i want now.Said you were the one but that ain't what I want now,what I want now, what i want, I want your bestfriend.
I need your bestfriend,
We can be bestfriends,
But I want your bestfreind.
Trust me when I say that you can't trust me at all,And we can be bestfriends,but I want your bestfreind.
Is Jessica around??I hear her coming down! We can be bestfriends, but I want your bestfriend.
Is Jessica around?? I hear her coming down.We can be bestfriends, but I want your bestfriend.Is Jessica around??
As soon as I saw your bestfriend there in the entrence I knew you were destined.
And we made friends but shared the rest if you wear the pants she wears the dresses.
I'm not sexist, just obsessive.I've been watchin' her.I confess that I sent her a message, couple of X'es,funny how a text can turn to breakfast.Ha, and thats how we got right here, too many lights, strobe lights and light beer, me and her just kicked into high gear.Thats Weird, despite what ya might hear.
You want romance, but I don't slow dance,and I won't hold hands,so there is no chance. Anyways,

It's on with the show,just let me know,
Is Jessica around??I hear her coming down! We can be bestfriends, but I want your bestfriend,
Is Jessica around??I hear her coming down! We can be bestfriends but I want your bestfriend.Is Jessica around??
(Music)
Yeah, you make it seem so easy.Is that any way to keep me?It's like you bring her around just to tease me...And she's so sick with it, oh so queasy
And you so steving (????) blind of the fact that i'm leaving.Cause the ribbons ain't up in the sky no more.I guess thats what friends are for..
Said we were in love but that ain't what I want now, what I want now, what i want now.Said you were the one but that ain't what I want now,what I want now, what i want, I want your bestfriend.
I need your bestfriend,
We can be bestfriends,
But I want your bestfreind.
Trust me when I say that you can't trust me at all.And we can be bestfriends, but I want your bestfriend.
Is Jessica around??I hear her coming down! We can be bestfriends, but I want your bestfriend.
Is Jessica around?? I hear her coming down.We can be bestfriends, but I want your bestfriend.Is Jessica around??
