

Superstar

James LaBrie

[LaBrie/Guillory]A masquerade

 The spotlights glare

 Exquisite fads to view

 Your every move

Fixated eyes on youThe camera waits as you prepare

 It comes so easily

 Once borrowed shoes

 Now high society

 A celebrityYour dreams

 Are now reality

 You've got everything

 Adored

 A two edged sword

 Magazines, silver screens

A SuperstarYou cannot stand what you've become

 It's lost all its appeal

 Your entourage

 Has no clue what you feel

 This time it's for realYour dreams

 Are now reality

 You've got everything

 Adored

 A two edged sword

 Magazines, silver screens

A SuperstarNot sure you like what you've become

 How you think, what you feel

 Should you care, how you look

 What you're paid to put on

 Know your part of the dealYour dreams

 Are now reality

 You've got everything

 Adored

 A two edged sword

 Magazines, silver screens

A SuperstarInfluence the youth

 Adored

 Unbecoming of you

 Exposed

 One will never know

Nothing they can prove
A true Superstar's
What you are
