

Blue 42 (Live In Auckland, NZ)

Haste the Day

Burning bridges, burning bridges
Shut myself off from the world
Burning bridges, burning bridges
Shut myself off from life As the ashes fall, as the ashes fall
Through the fire, through the flame
As the ashes fall, as the ashes fall
Through the fire, through the flame Life purified again
Well I won't look back
To the chains that bound me
Well I won't look back
To the chains that bound me And I will lay to rest my ghosts
And cover my footsteps
And I will stand up straight and walk away
Leaving them far behind
