Gone

Die Apokalyptischen Reiter

This is the end - life will pass away - tomorrow I will die
Eternity betrayed me again - it is a bitter lie.I wanna dance with the sun - reborn as a flame
This is the final chance - for glory and victory
I feel the honey in my veins - so bitter and so sweet
I wanna see the eagles fly - before I depart to die.Mother earth - thanks for your love and the pain.
I don't turn around because I will sometime return again.I danced with the sun - was reborn as a flame
It was my final chance - got glory and victory
I felt the honey in my veins - so bitter and so sweet
I saw the eagles fly - empowered me to die.[Lyrics: Volk-Man]
