

GOD DIVA

ALI PROJECT

GOD DIVA How does a seed of happiness
Live in hell, if an angel
Comes to sell it? Misfortune is a peaceful
And gorgeous tragedy
How is it like a trial? Would you now believe that Even if you fall into an unforeseen trap
A capable defense counsel
Will be set to save you? Come on, welcome
Here is the land of salvation
You should just be silent
And leave your body to me
Please forget, please forget
About the indefiniteness of this world
Along the road that you wish to walk
Theres a rose-colored catastrophe In the present moment that has lost its colors
Its a full house
In the lustful dramas of life Dont you think that
The misfortunes of strangers
With the flavor of honey that drips heartlessly
Wont happen upon you? Come on, welcome
Here is the blood of rapture
You should just look down
And hold out your arms
Please dream, please dream
Deep at bottom of that world
It splits apart from the tip of a needle
The tragicomedy of demise Please leave this ugly scenery alone
A castle that raise you up and blooms above the sand
Please destroy it, please destroy it
Holding onto your own will Come on, welcome
Here is the land of salvation
You should just be silent
And entrust your body to me
Please forget, please forget
About the indefiniteness of this world
At the dead end for the exhausted traveler
Theres a hot catastrophe GOD DIVA Koufuku no tane ikaga to
