Terras

RISHLOO

I listened to your words, I sat at your feet
Then I watched you drown millions in suicide philosophies
Then I stand in the balance with gold in my hands
And weep like a beggar in silence againI want to know
Why you just sat there
Watched millions of your people die
Without lifting a fingerHere we are at peace
If only for a time
To sleep in trance to scream
In silence for our crimes

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/