

Further Away

Evanescence

I took their smiles and I've made them mine
I sold my soul just to hide the light
And now I see what I really am
A thief, a whore, and a liar

I run to you
Call out your name
I see you there
Farther away

I'm numb to you
Numb and deaf and blind
You give me all but the reason why
I reach but I feel only air at night
Not you, not love, just nothing

Try to forget you
But without you, I feel nothing
Don't leave me here by myself
I can't breathe
