

The Plantation

Mortimer Nova

i can tell you're angry but thats just no excuse and that won't stop the hand that has to teach again stop your violent eyes because no one can hear and i don't want to shout so shut your mouth dear i didnt mean to hit you but you didn't learn before and you hurt the ones you love and the others even morethe elements can be so cruel the embrace was delivered late thieves will fall into the sun when you're content with nervousness waiting for an epiphany and pushing the extra mile hide your teeth from your smileyou hurt the ones you love and the others even moredon't walk out that door i won't bring you back home
