Three Simple Words

Tamar Kaprelian

Fate, how could it be that all I'm afraid of are three simple words Fallen, oh, I have fallen Something so good is something so wrong

Chorus:
Baby, it ain't so easy to see
I have found someone to love
And baby, it ain't so easy to trust
a love that could hurt me so much

Yesterday, love knocked me down Troubles a comin', comin' to stay but I, I'd rather leave knowin', knowin' we'd try than not try at all

Chorus:
Baby, it ain't so easy to see
I have found someone to love
And baby, it ain't so easy to trust
a love that could hurt me so much

oh...

Oh no, I've gotta be strong when it comes down to faith and a deeper devotion And oh no, it won't be that long til you turn my world right into motion

Chorus:
Baby, it ain't so easy to see
And baby, it ain't so easy to trust
a love that could hurt me so much

oh...
