

Broken Man (1987 Version)

Simply Red

Now I am a broken man, Now I am a broken man
Now I am a broken man, Now I am a broken man It's no good being here with me
I'm a little scared of the things you see
It's no good having friends at all
They do me no good, they don't do me no good at all It's no good living in the past
It's no good at all, you know it don't last
It's no good making a change
There's nothing to change, I don't want to rearrange But what I wanna do is spend some time with you
But I know I can't because all you want is you So now I am a broken man
Now I am a broken man
Now I am a broken man
I am a broken man I saw my shadow on the wall
It looked at me then left me
I'm hoping somebody will call
But I hope they don't come and get me at all Because what I wanna do is spend sometime with you
But I know I can't because all you want is you So now I am a broken man
Now I am a broken man
Now I am a broken man
I am a broken man

Songwriters

HUCKNALL, MICHAEL JAMES Published by

Lyrics © EMI Music Publishing Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>