Reintroduction

Buried Inside

[Hook:]Here we are Here to stay
We're getting closer, everyday Oh Here we are Standing our ground
Nothing can stop us, and no one will top us
I'm ready, I'm ready
Reintroduce myself for the first time
Remember my name, remember my name
Reintroduce myself for the first time
Remember my name
[Verse 1 (J Reyez):]When I write a song for you, why's there expectation?
It's what I do, why's it unappreciated?
My thoughts create it, my feelings have limitation Understand that you're part of my inspiration
I was thinking about you when I wrote it You should know, I don't even have to fucking quote it My deep thoughts from my heart, it ain't often I express it Try to think hard, shouldn't take a few seconds
You can keep guessing, you don't really notice? is that a question?
Why's it so hard in my position
Where everyone assumes that my life's about women and the fame
It's hard to maintain jealousy Stress building up and there's nothing that is helping me
"This and that".. "You better not".. and "You better be"..
Stop telling me, please just let me be
I'm ready, I'm ready
Reintroduce myself for the first time
Remember my name, remember my name
Reintroduce myself for the first time
Remember my name

[Verse 2 (Lil Crazed):]it's a new year, it's too clear now who's here, this dude here been doing this grind for a few years now the roads clear, plow, the haters that made us, and thanks for the major motivation of hatin', because i'm rising higher than i ever imagined, like magic, i'm riding in the skies like aladdin, no genie needed, believed in achieving and succeeded, eating all these beats and now my family's maxin', keys in ignition, gear in to drive, haters as the gas and fans steering my ride, look ma, no hands look ma, my fans truly support me, i use your ears as my eyes, so my vision is clear long as i hear your applause, and to those who happened to forget my name, allow me to retinroduce myself, my name is CRAZED!

I'm ready, I'm ready
Reintroduce myself for the first time
Remember my name, remember my name
Reintroduce myself for the first time
Remember my name

Here we are
We're getting closer, everyday
Oh Here we are Standing our ground
Nothing can stop us, and no one will top us
I'm ready, I'm ready
Reintroduce myself for the first time
Remember my name, remember my name
Reintroduce myself for the first time
Remember my name
