Where Am I Going?

Matt Mays

I got a one way ticket to a lucid land
With a song on my tongue and a wheel in my hand
Where am I going? Wouldn't you love to know
Where the water runs clean and the clouds run dry
The garden explodes and the air gets you high
Where am I going? Wouldn't you love to know
But if I told you then everyone'd wanna go
No, I can't tell you 'cause everyone'd wanna goTwenty miles tops from the city's lights
You can settle your heart down in the sunseted nights
Where am I going? Wouldn't you love to know
But if I told you then everyone'd wanna go
No, I can't tell you 'cause everyone'd wanna goWell, it's the place where I go where they know who I am
And trouble just left, I heard the screen door slam
Where am I going? Wouldn't you love to know
But if I told you then everyone'd wanna go
No, I can't tell you 'cause everyone'd wanna go
Oh, if I told you then everyone'd wanna go
No, I can't tell you 'cause everyone'd wanna go
